

SHERMAN WELLS

---

SYLVESTER & STAMELMAN LLP

Proudly Announces Our New Partner, Counsel and Associate

Sherman Wells Sylvester & Stamelman LLP is pleased to announce the election of new Partner, Jordan D. Weinreich and new Counsel, Kathleen E. Clark. The firm is also pleased to announce the addition of Michelle Leland as an Associate.

Jordan D. Weinreich

Jordan D. Weinreich is an experienced, results-focused litigator who has successfully and effectively represented his clients in complex legal matters in federal and state courts, and before arbitration panels, nationwide. With a focus on business litigation, Jordan represents a diverse array of clients spanning a multitude of industries in all manner of business disputes, including commercial disputes, shareholder and partnership disputes, brokerage industry disputes, disputes arising out of M&A transactions, employment disputes, and claims for unfair competition and other business torts. Jordan also represents trustees, personal representatives, and other fiduciaries in connection with contested probate matters. In recent years, Jordan has contributed to the further development of the firm's burgeoning Professional Liability Practice, successfully representing law firms ranging from small shops to AmLaw 100 firms. Jordan also serves as a mentor for the New Jersey Legal Education and Empowerment Program (NJ LEEP) and organized Sherman Wells' inaugural internship program for NJ LEEP students.

Prior to joining Sherman Wells, Jordan practiced in the litigation department in law firms in New Jersey and New York City. Jordan received his J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law, and his undergraduate degree from Tulane University.

Kathleen E. Clark

Kathleen E. Clark practices in the firm’s corporate group, where she focuses on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, commercial contracts, and other general business law matters. In particular, Kate represents corporate clients in structuring, negotiating and consummating domestic and cross-border mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, strategic alliances, and other commercial transactions in a wide array of industries. Kate also advises on early-stage investments, operating and shareholder agreements, corporate governance matters, questions of local New Jersey and New York corporate law, and preparing and negotiating commercial contracts. Kate is a member of the Business Law Section and the Mergers and Acquisitions and Middle Market and Small Business committees of the American Bar Association. She has also been selected by Thomson Reuters as a Super Lawyers “Rising Star” for mergers and acquisitions in New Jersey since 2015.

Prior to joining Sherman Wells, Kate practiced as an associate in the corporate department in law firms in New Jersey and New York City. Kate received her J.D. from Northwestern University School of Law, and her undergraduate degree from Trinity College.

Michelle Leland

Michelle Leland focuses her practices on corporate and business law, intellectual property and technology transactions. Michelle counsels clients on issues related to corporate formation, corporate governance and commercial contracts, including license agreements, vendor agreements, SaaS agreements and professional services agreements. Michelle has experience representing clients in a wide array of areas, including computer software and hardware, semiconductors, LEDs, wireless networking and pharmaceuticals. Michelle also has experience representing clients in patent disputes and in mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to joining Sherman Wells, Michelle practiced as an IP litigation lawyer at international law firms in New York City and Washington, D.C. Her experience also includes serving as an intern for the general counsel at the US Department of Energy and a judicial intern for the Honorable Noel L. Hillman, US District Court of New Jersey. Michelle received her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center, and her undergraduate engineering degree from Cornell University.