

FIRM NEWS

August 2015

Sherman Wells Hosts Red Bulls Networking Night

On August 9, 2015, Sherman Wells hosted its first Red Bulls Networking Night as the Red Bulls defeated NYCFC 2-0. Aside from family and friends, in attendance were Craig Feldman of A&P, John Kuntz of The Provident Bank and Timothy Matteson of Lakeland Bank.

Pictured above from left to right:

Bill Connolly (Sherman Wells), Craig Feldman (A&P), Tony Sylvester (Sherman Wells)

Pictured above from left to right:

Timothy J. Matteson (Lakeland Bank), Tony Sylvester (Sherman Wells)

In This Issue

Sherman Wells Hosts Red Bulls Networking Night
Pg 1

Sherman Wells Presents Portrait of Louis Prima to the Mayor of Morristown at the 2015 Morristown Jazz & Blues Festival
Pg 3

Office Locations

New Jersey

210 Park Avenue
2nd Floor
Florham Park NJ 07932
973.302.9700

New York

805 Third Avenue
10th Floor
New York NY 10022
212.763.6464

Follow Sherman Wells on LinkedIn  Twitter

Pictured above from left to right:
John Kuntz (The Provident Bank), Anthony Wallace (Red Bulls Player), Tony Sylvester (Sherman Wells), Jack Kuntz, Ronald Zubar (Red Bulls Player), Abbey Van Horne, Megan Kuntz

Pictured above from left to right:
Steve Ryan, Anthony Wallace (Red Bulls Player), Joe Sylvester, Ronald Zubar (Red Bulls Player)

Sherman Wells Presents Portrait of Louis Prima to the Mayor of Morristown at the 2015 Morristown Jazz & Blues Festival

On August 15, 2015, partner Tony Sylvester presented a framed Louis Prima portrait to the Mayor of Morristown, Timothy Dougherty, at this year's Morristown Jazz & Blues festival. Sherman Wells is proud to be pro bono counsel to the Festival and a lead sponsor at this year's Jazz & Blues Festival. Click here to view a video of the presentation.

*Pictured above:
Tony Sylvester presenting portrait of Louis Prima to Mayor Dougherty*